Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your recent letter. I was particularly impressed by the attachment. Such a direct and timely appeal from your group to [REDACTED] should have a real effect in exposing Soviet intentions.

I am sorry that we cannot help you in your search for funds. However, in view of the importance of your work and the ability and reputation of the members of your committee, I should think that assistance from some private foundation could be obtained. I hope that you will not allow initial refusals to discourage you, and I will take every opportunity to mention the effectiveness of your work to acquaintances who are active in foundations.

You were most kind to express your thoughts about Allen. The latest word is a little more encouraging. He cannot have any visitors but the sympathetic expressions of so many friends make it easier for Clover and for me.

Sincerely,

(Signed) ALLEN W. DULLES
